

TOY BUILDING BLOCKS

"My 4 year old son asked me to buy him these blocks after working with them at school. It teaches shapes and colors, improves hand eye coordination and concentration. My son can sit a whole hour to work with it. Recommend!"

We are familiar with the puzzles that make us recreate a certain picture. They're good for the brain, that's for sure, but it's not really artistic. What if we flip the idea over? That the picture should be CREATED, not recreated.
