

COMPACT CAMPING COMPASS

"Bought this compass for my 13 yr olds birthday. She homeschools and is currently studying all of the conquistadors and how to find her nautical locations. Guess who screamed and ran outside to use her new compass? Was awesome! Thanks!"

Never set out in the desert, mountains, or forest without this Compact Camping Compass. No batteries or charging up is required, so you can have a potentially life-saving guide right in your possession. Safety smarts are important!
